

New boy at MCCH, his name is Omar age 13 and has been under legal care by his Aunt because his mother did not want anything to do with him, this is a very special case and turning point for Omar since he had been left to take hold of his own daily life because of lacking family support, please keep him in your prayer as we know the Lord is already working in him.